

Employee Satisfaction Analysis

Recruitment Type, Department & Location Insights

Renee Kammeyer
Data Analytics Student WGU
April 2026

Employee Satisfaction by Recruitment Type, Department & Location

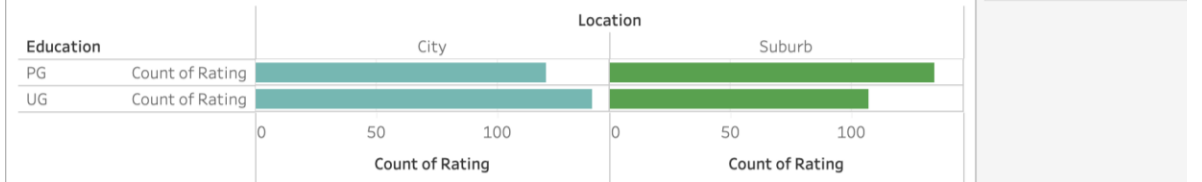

- For On-Campus; 72 out of 133 employees are satisfied.
- For Recruitment Agency; 59 out of 108 employees are satisfied.
- For Referral; 68 out of 131 employees are satisfied.
- For Walk-In; 64 out of 128 employees are satisfied.

Comparison of Employee Ratings: Undergraduate vs Postgraduate

- There are 120 post graduates from the city that provided ratings & 134 from the suburbs.
- More postgraduates from the suburbs provided ratings.
- There are 139 undergraduate employees from the city that provided ratings & 107 from the suburbs.
- 78 On-Campus Recruitment employees from the city provided ratings & 58 are from the suburbs.
- More On-Campus recruited employees came from the city.
- 61 employees from the city that were referred provided ratings & 70 were from the suburbs.
- 70 employees from the city that were walk-ins provided ratings, whereas only 58 were from the city.

What were the number of Post-Graduate ratings as opposed to that of Undergraduates?

Key Findings & Insights

- Recruitment source significantly impacts employee satisfaction
- Referral and On-Campus hires show the highest satisfaction levels
- Education level influences rating distribution
- Location (City vs. Suburb) affects employee feedback trends

These insights highlight key drivers of employee satisfaction across recruitment and demographic factors.